

DOC

SEA-EU DOC training event
Career development for doctoral students
17 to 21 May 2021 – ONLINE

Monday 17 May

Morning

Session 1: Welcoming and introduction session

Presentation of SEA-EU DOC project and the 6 six universities of SEA-EU

Presentation of the training objectives

Ice-breaking session: the place of a doctoral thesis in the job market? In society?

Afternoon

Session 2: Is there a life after my thesis?

Presentation Innovative doctoral training in Europe

Results of SEA-EU-DOC career tracking survey

Testimonials of doctorate holders working in non-academic sectors

Session 3: Workshop: where do you see yourself in 10 years?

Tuesday 18 May

As a PhD, I'm highly trained and qualified. Knowing it to be able to claim it

Morning

Session 1: How to identify my skills?

Presentation of the Competency-based approach and the different approaches chosen in each university

Conferences (speakers to be confirmed)

Presentation of VIPS and Vitae approaches

How to use the online tools?

Afternoon

Session 2: Workshop: How to build an e-Portfolio of competences?

Wednesday 19 May

Different approaches for efficient job search

Morning

Session 1: Pro-active approach

How to create your professional networks? E-prospection and professional watch

Afternoon

Session 2: How to apply to job offers?

Thursday 20 May

Welcome to the diversity of the job market: an ocean of possibilities

Morning

Session 1: Testimonials of former doctorates

Round table 1: Using our scientific skills, in the non-academic sector

Round table 2: Contributing to public policies (local authorities, ministry...)

Round table 3: Staying in the academic world but not in Research

Round table 4: 180° career turnarounds

Round table 5: Ocean literacy

Afternoon

Session 2: How to pitch?

Definition and methodology

Workshop: prepare your pitch with a professional consultant

Friday 21 May

How to briefly present myself with a maximum impact?

Presentation of pitches and feedback from participants and professionals